

Invitations

Invitations may be themed green and gold, using the official USF PMS approved colors and proper branding. For guidance or assistance with invitation content and format, contact the Director of Communications and Marketing for the USF Foundation , 974-9562

With recent advances in software technology, invitations can easily be designed and printed in-house for smaller events. For larger events, a printing company should be used.